

Advent Service of Lessons and Carols

presented by the

Canto Deo Chamber Choir

Holy Ghost Church, November 26, 2022 at 7:00 pm

Bethany Lutheran Church, November 27, 2022 at 3:00 pm

Traditional Advent services in the Anglican church vividly and poignantly prepared worshipers for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Much of our service today draws from these ancient liturgies, yet we soon discover that new carols also connect us to the faithful past, echoing the same message of hope and expectation. Time and again, people have recrafted familiar words and melodies in new ways to speak of their experiences of life apart from God, his loving forgiveness, and their hope for his merciful dealings with all the world. This Advent service gives voice to the longing of God's people through the ages as we look for his living and working in our lives. We, therefore, join together for this ceremonial Service of Lessons and Carols, expectantly awaiting God's presence among us.

With the birth of a child born in obscurity while the rest of the world was asleep, God offers us restoration from brokenness to wholeness, and the remarkable gift of continuous transformation of our lives. Christ brings peace, light, and hope into the black despair which threatens to overwhelm our world. In this service, as in all the Advent season, we recognize the world's desperate need of Christ, recall his coming to save it, and refocus our gaze on his coming again in judgment and love to make it wholly his at last.

Before the service shall be played:

Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

ORDER OF SERVICE

ADVENT RESPONSORY

I look from afar:
And lo! I see the power of God coming,
and a cloud covering the whole earth.
Go ye out to meet him and say:
Tell us, art thou he that should come
to reign over thy people Israel?
High and low, rich and poor,
one with another,
Go ye out to meet him and say:
Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel,
thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep,
Tell us: art thou he that should come?

Stir up thy strength, O Lord, and come
to reign over thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
I look from afar, and lo!
I see the power of God coming,
and a cloud covering the whole earth.
Go ye out to meet him and say:
Tell us, art thou he that should come
to reign over thy people Israel?

Words taken from the First Responary of Advent Sunday, Office of Matins (early medieval Roman rite)

Music by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (c.1525-1594)s

§ During the following hymn, the candle lighter processes and lights the Advent candle to represent the coming of the Light of Christ into the world. They are followed by the Minister who bears the Word of God, our record and evidence in the Gospels of the coming of that Light.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

There be one God in persons three,
Pares forma. (of equal form)

Gloria in excelsis Deo!
Gaudeamus. (let us rejoice)
Leave we all this worldly mirth,
And follow we this joyful birth;
Transeamus. (let us pass from worldly to heavenly things)

FOURTH LESSON

God reveals a vision of the river and tree of life to the Apostle John. Revelation 22:1-5

CAROL

Jesus Christ the apple tree

The tree of life my soul hath seen,
 Laden with fruit and always green:
 The trees of nature fruitless be
 Compared with Christ the apple tree.
 His beauty doth all things excel:
 By faith I know, but ne'er can tell
 The glory which I now can see
 In Jesus Christ the apple tree.
 For happiness I long have sought,
 And pleasure dearly I have bought:

I missed of all; but now I see
 'Tis found in Christ the apple tree.
 I'm weary with my former toil,
 Here I will sit and rest awhile:
 Under the shadow I will be,
 Of Jesus Christ the apple tree.
 This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
 It keeps my dying faith alive;
 Which makes my soul in haste to be
 With Jesus Christ the apple tree.

*Words from Divine Hymns or Spiritual Songs, compiled by Joshua Smith, New Hampshire, 1784
 Music by Elizabeth Poston (1905-1987)*

§ Please wait until the last chord of the carol has completely died away before turning the page.

FIFTH LESSON

The Lord will be your everlasting light Isaiah 60:1-3, 19-22

CAROL

Light triumphant breaks

O people of Zion, behold, the Lord is nigh at hand to redeem the nations: alleluia.
And in the gladness of your heart the Lord shall cause his glorious voice to be heard: alleluia.

The King shall come when morning dawns
And light triumphant breaks,
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
And life to joy awakes.

Not, as of old, a little child,
To bear, and fight, and die,
But crowned with glory like the sun
That lights the morning sky.

O brighter than the rising morn
When he, victorious, rose
And left the lonesome place of death,
Despite the rage of foes.

O brighter than that glorious morn
Shall this fair morning be,
When Christ, our King, in beauty comes,
And we his face shall see.

The King shall come when morning dawns,
and earth's dark night is past;
O haste the rising of that morn,
that day that aye shall last.

And let the endless bliss begin
By weary saints foretold,
When right shall triumph over wrong,
And truth shall be extolled.

The King shall come when morning dawns,
And light and beauty brings:
Hail Christ the Lord! thy people pray,
Come quickly, King of kings. Alleluia!

Sarum Introit for Second Sunday of Advent

SIXTH LESSON

Christ took the form of a servant. Philippians 2:5-11

CAROL

O nata lux

O nata lux de lumine,
Jesu redemptor saeculi,
dignare clemens supplicum
laudes precesque sumere.

Qui carne quondam contegi
dignatus es pro perditis,
Nos membra confer effici
tui beati corporis.

*O born light of light,
Jesus, redeemer of the world, mercifully deem worthy and accept the praises and prayers of your supplicants.*

Thou who once deined to be clothed in flesh for the sake of the lost ones, grant us to be made members of your holy body.

Text is the office hymn at Lauds of the Feast of the Transfiguration

Music by Morten Lauridsen (b. 1943)

HYMN

to be sung by all, standing

O come, O come Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel! Redeem thy captive Israel
That into exile drear is gone, far from the face of God's dear Son.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Men:

O come, thou Branch of Jesse! Draw the quarry from the lion's claw;
From the dread caverns of the grave, from nether hell, thy people save.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Women:

O come, O come, thou Dayspring bright! Pour on our souls thy healing light;
Disperse the long night's ling'ring gloom, and pierce the shadows of the tomb.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Men:

O come, thou Lord of David's Key! The royal door fling wide and free;
Safeguard for us the heav'nward road, and bar the way to death's abode.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

All:

O come, O come, Adonai, who in thy glorious majesty
From that high mountain clothed with awe, gavest thy folk the elder law.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

*Words 9th century from the O Antiphons, 15th century French melody
Adapted and arranged by Sir David Willcocks (1919-2015)*

§ The congregation shall remain standing for the reading of the Gospel.

SEVENTH LESSON

The angel Gabriel announces to Mary that she is to bear a son, Jesus, whose kingdom will never end. St. Luke 1:26-38

§ The congregation shall sit.

CAROL

E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come

Peace be to you and grace from him
Who freed us from our sin,
Who loved us all and shed his blood
That we might saved be.

Sing holy, holy to our Lord,
The Lord, Almighty God,
Who was and is and is to come;
Sing holy, holy, Lord!

Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell therein,
Rejoice on earth, ye saints below,
For Christ is coming, is coming soon,
For Christ is coming soon!

E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come,
And night shall be no more;
They need no light nor lamp nor sun,
For Christ will be their All!

*Words from Revelation 22, adapted by Ruth Manz (1919 - 2008)

Minister: Let us pray. Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness and to put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility; that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

§ All shall keep silent for a time.

Last stanza arranged by Sir David Willcocks (1919-2015)

§ The congregation shall remain standing and all shall keep silent for a time.

THE BLESSING

Open wide, O Lord, the gates of heaven and visit your people in peace.
Send forth your Spirit from on high that their hearts may be uplifted unto you.
O Lord, who were for us of a virgin born, make holy your people and bless your heritage:
And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you and abide with you for ever.

All: Amen.

THE PEACE

Minister: The night is far spent, the day is at hand.
Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.
Come, O Lord, comfort the soul of your servant.

All: Even so, Lord, come.

Minister: O Lord Jesus Christ, come

All: at evening time, with light,

Minister: and in the morning, with your glory,

All: to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Minister: He who receives our prayers says: Surely I will come quickly.
I am the root and offspring of David. I am the bright and morning star.

All: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

Minister: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All: In the name of Christ. Amen.
